

Everyone is a scientist

We are enthused and challenged in learning

We make inter subject curricular links

We develop real life learning experiences

We foster and develop children's natural curiosity

The Shared Principles of good teaching and learning in Cambo First School

We ask scientific questions

We use a variety of environments

We design investigations.